

Congratulations on purchasing Beyond the Dice: Symphonic Soundscapes, music created to help gamers take their tabletop RPG to the next level. Just as a soundtrack enhances the mood of each scene in a movie, Beyond the Dice will add a new layer of depth to your role-playing experience. Each track has been specifically designed to enhance a unique scene or mood common to RPG's, while still being generic enough to fill many roles.

1. Ambient Fantasy: In a word "Background." This music is ideal filling time in between combat when the group is really just talking.
2. Invasive Evil: Heading into the crypts? Wandering through a ghost town? Build creepy suspense with this bone-chilling track.
3. Fugitive's Pursuit: RUN! Whether you are the hunter or the hunted, this track is sure to get the adrenaline pumping.
4. Aria of the Star-crossed: Perfect for sentimental romance scenes, as well as touching PC moments.
5. March of the Lost Heroes: A moment of silence for the fallen as this mournful march sends them into the afterlife. Also, great for grandiose processions.
6. Into the Breach: Lock and load - It is time to roll! As combat looms on the horizon, this track will stir the battle blood.
7. Elevator Music: Cheesy, yes. But we know you love it.
8. Rho Pi Gamma: An homage to our gamers' podcast friends at <http://rhopigamma.wordpress.com/>
This track also serves as fantastic alternate combat music.
